Allowance

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's Amendment, filed 24 May 2005. The changes and remarks disclosed therein were considered.
2. Claims 11-16 have been canceled.
3. Claims 1-10 and 17-31 are pending in the application.
4. Claims 1-10 and 17-31 are allowance.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

There is no teaching or suggestion in the prior art to:

"a write stage connected to the memory array including current generator means selectively connected to the address lines and supplying selected memory cell with current having values that modify an electrical property of the memory element of the selected memory cells in a phase change memory device" as claimed in the independent claim 1; or

"a write stage connected to the memory array including a current generator selectively connected to a selected one of the bit line and supplying a selected one of the memory cell connected to the selected bit line with a current having a value that modifies an electrical property of the selected memory cells in a phase change memory device " as claimed in the independent claim 17; or

"a current generator selectively connected to a selected one of the bit lines and supplying a selected one of the memory cells connected to the selected bit line with a current having a value that modifies an electrical property of the selected memory cell, the current generator being structured to provide a voltage to the selected memory cell that depends on a position of the selected memory cell within the column to which the selected bit line is connected in a phase change memory device” as claimed in the independent claim 26.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
